Recent Developments in connection with the Offer

Pursuant to a notice of variation dated 23 May 2007, OJSC MMC Norilsk Nickel ("Norilsk") varied, amended and supplemented its offer (dated 8 May 2007 and referred to in Xstrata's announcement of 15 May 2007) to purchase all of the issued and outstanding common shares of LionOre in order to increase the consideration payable under the Norilsk offer, by C$6.00 to C$27.50 in cash per LionOre common share. On 24 May 2007, LionOre announced that its board of directors had reviewed the increased Norilsk offer in consultation with its financial and legal advisors and in the context of its obligations under its support agreement with Xstrata dated 25 March 2007, as amended (the "Support Agreement"), and that its board had determined that the increased Norilsk offer constitutes a "superior proposal" for purposes of the Support Agreement. Pursuant to the Support Agreement, Xstrata is entitled, on or prior to 1 June 2007, to exercise its matching right and further increase its Offer.
